Wright announced as new director of Aspire Indiana's Elwood office

Elwood, Ind. (August, 2011) – Cindy Wright, Elwood native, has joined the Aspire Indiana team as Director of the organization's Elwood office. Wright received her license in clinical social work from the state of Indiana in 2005 after completing extensive academic degrees. Her degrees include a bachelor of social work from Taylor University, a master of social work from the University of Louisville, and a master of business administration from American InterContinental University.

"As the Director of the Elwood Office, the professional team and I will work to meet the needs of Elwood and the surrounding communities", said Wright. "Having grown up in the Elwood, I have a passion to see the area succeed."

Wright's work experience includes mental health services in areas of youth, aging, and domestic violence as well as a year of service as an AmeriCorps VISTA. In her new role, she plans on developing new programs in the areas of youth and domestic violence.

Aspire Indiana is a private nonprofit organization that provides therapy, recovery and employment services to people living with behavioral and mental health disorders, addictions and substance abuse. Aspire offer services to families and individuals of all ages at eleven locations conveniently located throughout Central Indiana, including Madison, Hamilton, and Boone, Counties and Washington and Pike Townships in Marion County.
