DeHaven named as national 2011 Behavioral Healthcare Champion

Noblesville, Ind. (August, 2011) – C. Richard DeHaven, CEO of Aspire Indiana will be named a 2011 Behavioral Healthcare Champion at the National Conference of Addiction Disorders (NCAD) in San Diego, California. This annual award recognizes excellence in senior leadership of community mental health services and addiction treatment at the national level.

DeHaven, nominated by his peers and selected by Behavioral Healthcare magazine's editorial team, was a stand out among CEOs, executive directors and professional organizations alike. Organizations include The National Council, The Mental Health Corporations of America, The National Association of Addiction Treatment Providers and The National Association of County Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities Directors. DeHaven's award-winning leadership is known for the pursuit of a single goal - What can we do to create better opportunities for those we serve?

DeHaven will be recognized with his award on September 20th at the National Conference on Addiction Disorders (NCAD).
