HOPWA Overview

- 🎗️ designed to assist low income individuals living with HIV/AIDS, in order to prevent homelessness.
- 🎗️ emergency funding of last resort. Community resources must be accessed first.
- 🎗️ can aid with household expenses, such as rent/mortgage and utilities.
- 🎗️ Eligibility is based on income. Individuals must provide proof of status and income verification.
- 🎗️ Eligible clients should contact their care coordinator or local care coordination site for further assistance and questions.
- 🎗️ Individuals requesting assistance must be enrolled in care coordination and have their quarterly review current.
- 🎗️ There are two main assistance programs available through HOPWA: Long-term assistance and Short-term Assistance.

LONG-TERM HOPWA

Approved individuals will receive subsidized rental assistance from the date of their enrollment until June 30th, as long as program guidelines are followed and the individual remains eligible for assistance. Individuals will be reassessed for eligibility in July to determine continued eligibility. Assistance may last for up to, but not exceeding, 2 years. Individuals enrolled in this program must have a source of income prior to entering the second year in this program.

SHORT-TERM HOPWA

All individuals not currently receiving housing assistance through another source are eligible for up to, but not exceeding 21 weeks (approximately 5 months) worth of assistance. Assistance is provided upon request. However, assistance is not guaranteed. Individuals must be in disconnect notice or at risk of losing housing in order to receive assistance. Community resources must be accessed first.
